Parkside Family Home with Pool and Wow-Factor

Beyond the picture-book front verandah, you walk into the stunning lounge and immediately you understand what "wow-factor" means. Gorgeous raked ceiling with exposed beams and chimney brickwork, timber floors, built-in display wall and cosy wood combustion fire in an original fireplace, all certainly translates into "Wow!"

The built-in bar - which could be transformed into a computer nook and exposed staircase with storage beneath simply adds to the enormous charm of this main lounge. Adjoining this area is the tiled dining space and beyond that is the kitchen.

What can I say about the storage in the kitchen? This is the perfect kitchen for the large family. The cupboard and bench space is wonderful, as is the dishwasher, ceramic cooktop and wall oven, massive fridge space plus a pantry. This is the ideal home-maker's haven.

The laundry is also large and there's a convenient additional shower room and toilet on this floor, perfect for busy families.
