

10 Crown Lane, South Lismore FOR SALE

Huge family home, quiet location

Situated in a quiet laneway in South Lismore, this family home has so much room it needs to be seen to be believed. The owners have found their new home and are keen to move on and start their new life. The asking price of the property has been significantly reduced and the property is priced to sell.

The home has been thoroughly cleaned and partially stripped out with VJ liner boards now exposed from under the plaster walls. The hardwood floors are waiting to be brought back to life with a polish and the property presents as a blank canvas with options galore.

There is infrastructure for bathroom and toilet downstairs with room for a self contained studio and four car accommodation or more if required.

With five bedrooms and options to create more on the huge wrap-around sleepout (STCA), this property is perfect for large families or extended families.
