Breathtaking hinterland sanctuary in gorgeous Blindmouth Valley, Main Arm

Nestled before the majestic Koonyum Ranges, enveloped by primordial rainforest and framed by acres of park-like grounds, this 15-hectare private estate is a sanctuary of pure tranquility.

Experience the unique magic of hinterland living with an architecturally designed main residence, multiple separate cottages, an abundant fruit orchard and idyllic dam dotted throughout 35-acres of lovingly cared for natural landscape. Just 4-minutes to the charming Main Arm General Store and 10-minutes to Mullumbimby, this is a rare slice of North Coast bliss.

The long private driveway leads you through gently undulating farmland to arrive at the gorgeous main house, cocooned by lush rainforest bordering the Inner Pocket Nature Reserve on two sides, offering true peace and privacy. Meticulously designed by the Parisian Interior Architect Marie-Helene Chaine, the four bedroom plus two attic rooms or six bedrooms, primary residence was expertly constructed by a carpenter from New Zealand, skilled in the use of natural timbers.
