

378 Lovedale Road, Lovedale
FOR SALE

Unrivalled potential in a prime Lovedale location!

In the very heart of Lovedale, surrounded by some of the Hunter region's most iconic wineries, restaurants and major tourist attractions, is 378 Lovedale Road.

This acreage, proudly offered to the market for the first time in 50 years by Zoe Robertson Property presents a truly unique investment opportunity to purchase a lifestyle property with incredible planning potential in a highly sought-after location.

Set on 20 flat acres of extremely usable land with an impressive 300-metre road frontage, the property is tucked away down a private driveway and surrounded by landscaped lawns and established plants and trees. Post and wire fencing provides security for your horses or cattle.

The large dam provides an ample water supply with a one megalitre PID allocation and there are multiple dam water taps installed across the property, whilst a creek runs across the back of the homestead into Black Creek.
